

Module 12, Lesson 3 Quiz:

How to Craft a Group Lesson Plan

1. The primary goal of a needs assessment when crafting a group lesson plan is to:
 - a. Meet the needs of every participant
 - b. Meet the goals of the lesson plan that was crafted
 - c. Determine what your audience would benefit from learning
 - d. Evaluate the lesson plan and determine its strengths

2. In gathering data for a needs assessment, which is not a valid tool:
 - a. Observations
 - b. Interviews
 - c. Review data
 - d. Testing

3. What is the difference between a goal and an objective?
 - a. Goals are general and objectives are specific
 - b. Goals have verbs attached and objectives are sensorial
 - c. Goals are used in lesson plans and objectives are used in assessments
 - d. Nothing. They are the same.

4. True or false. Feedback in the form of an evaluation is usually not necessary. It is possible to tell how successful a group was by the way the participants react.
 - a. True
 - b. False

5. If attendees in a group lesson are looking to personalize the material that was covered, a strategy to reinforce the information is:
 - a. An evaluation
 - b. A needs assessment
 - c. An assignment
 - d. An interview